Requesting an Application

The Department of Water Resources announces that the draft applications for grants and loans for the Proposition 13 Groundwater Storage Program and Groundwater Recharge Program are now available for review. Schedule information for the application, review, and selection process is included in the draft applications. The change summary documents provide a summary of the major changes between the draft applications and the Fiscal Year 2001-2002 applications. Continue to check the DWR website for future announcements regarding the final applications, application workshops, and the application submittal date.
